How to Use Your Farmers Market Checks

Know Before You Go

Safety First
- DC protocols may change throughout the season. Follow the Mayor's guidance.
- Keep a mask and hand sanitizer in your bag.
- Order ahead, if possible.

About your Checks
- Spend your checks before October 31.
- Checks will not be replaced if lost or stolen.
- Checks cannot be used at supermarkets.

What to Bring
- Bring your checks and market guide with you to the market. If you’re a WIC participant, bring your ID folder.
- Sign your checks before visiting the market. Or bring a pen with you and sign them at checkout.

Maximize your $$
- Ask farmer or market staff about using other payment types (like cash, credit card, SNAP, bonus bucks) with your farmers market checks.
- Some markets double the value of your checks!

Look for Poster
- Look for an Authorized Farmer poster.
- Authorized farmers can accept your farmers market checks.

Make your Purchase
- Show WIC ID to the farmer at time of purchase.
- Seniors not required to show ID.
- Only buy approved fruits, vegetables & cut herbs.
- For a list of approved foods scan the QR code:
